A deal has gone through whereby J. T. Armstrong, Junr., comes into possession of a half-section of land in the Didsbury district. The family intend to move there shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Halliday returned home on Monday last after spending a vacation visiting coast towns.

The Celebration of Peace in town was certainly a very peaceful affair. A large number took advantage of the week end and went picnicing. The town showing a deserted appearance. On Saturday morning the Salvation Army Band on their way to Red Deer halted for refreshments and played a couple of selections before resuming their journey. This somewhat dispelled the monotony.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gilchrist are enjoying a holiday at Maple Creek. Mr. Keene, of Bowden, is filling the vacancy at the local depot during Joe's absence.

Mrs. Ford and her brother Roy are spending a holiday at the coast. Mr. Ford having left the district in quest of a new location to open a business.

Work Is Our Salvation

The signing of the peace treaty, and with demobilization of the army so well advanced that, so far as Canada is concerned, July 31 has been fixed as the official date by which demobilization will be considered as having been completed, brings the nations of the world to close grips with vital domestic problems of reconstruction. It was, of course, impossible to turn the world upside down for five years during which the energies of almost all mankind and the resources of all civilized nations were devoted to works of destruction without creating conditions which will require much time, great patience and almost infinite wisdom to restore to normal.

The necessities of war forced the abandonment of many sound business principles. The need of securing supplies in huge quantities at a moment's notice resulted in the payment of unheard of prices for these supplies, and the payment of higher scales of wages in order to secure the necessary output than had hitherto been known, especially as countless millions of men had been withdrawn from productive enterprise into the armies. The inevitable result was the doing of business in many extravagant ways because output was demanded regardless of the cost. And this excessive cost of production, coupled with the wholesale destruction of property and wealth which was taking place all over the world, led to an increase in the cost of living which has become a burden almost too great to be borne. This, in turn, led to still higher wages, and higher wages again increased costs of production.

It is recognized that this cannot go on. If it does, the point will finally be reached where inflation will end in depression, a stoppage of industry, and widespread unemployment. Should that unfortunate condition be created then wages will take a tumble, because under the stress of necessity men will work for almost anything in order to get work and supply the needs of themselves and families. In Canada, we do not want to reach that stage, and it is, therefore, the duty of Government and people alike to direct their minds and bend their energies to eliminating further waste and reducing the cost of living.

Wages undoubtedly must and should be maintained at a fairly high level, and there will be much sympathy with the demand of all workers for an adequate return for their labor. But a halt must be called to the almost universal demand for a marked shortening of the hours of labor and a consequent decrease in production which means an increased price for the article produced. In these days people should be willing to work longer hours, and their assistants in increasing production to make good the waste and destruction of the past five years, rather than insist upon performing less work. By so doing they will be working out their own and their country's salvation and warding off depression and further loss.

Great Britain, for example, is facing a national crisis as a result of the high wages and short hours demanded by the coal miners and which have made necessary an increase of $1.50 a ton in the price of coal. This means an increased cost of fuel to the people, increased transportation charges on railways and steamships, increased manufacturing costs of all goods, and because of these increased costs of production a decreased ability to compete for trade in the export markets of the world, and consequent loss of trade. The coal mining industry could stand the paying of the higher wages, but the shorter hours of employment means such a loss in output that the combined loss is staggering and, of course, in the final analysis, the people must pay it.

In Canada we are face to face with somewhat similar conditions and the country is passing through an era of industrial strikes which, as Premier Borden has pointed out in an appeal to all the people for co-operation, are almost as destructive as war itself. There should be no strike in Canada. They entail loss all round. And they are an unnecessary survival of a bygone age, because we now have all the necessary machinery of arbitration to settle any disputes which may arise.

Canadians need to arouse themselves to full recognition of the fact that true patriotism at this time demands the rendering of just as unselfish service as was given by our soldiers in the war. If the call of patriotism will not lead men and women to render such service, then in self-interest they should do so in order to avert nation-wide depression and unemployment. Our soldiers did not put in for us and our country's cause. Nor should the workers of Canada now demand a reduction of hours of labor to an extreme minimum.

In some quarters the fallacious doctrine is preached that it is necessary to shorten the hours of individual labor in order to supply employment for all. The reverse is true. The greater the production, the greater the wealth produced and the greater the amount of new employment which will be provided. Adversely, restrict the output of any essential commodity, say coal as in Britain, and the output of all other industries is adversely affected and the amount of employment lessened.

Let a high standard of wages be maintained, but let our people be willing to work even longer hours than before the war, and throw their whole energy and capacity into their work during their hours of labor. Only so will they save themselves and their country from an even more perilous position than that of the Great War.

LISTLESS, PEEVISH GIRLS

When a girl in her teens becomes peevish, listless and dull, when nothing seems to interest her and dainties do not tempt her appetite, you may be certain that she needs more good blood than her system provides. Before long her pallid cheeks, frequent headaches, and breathless, weak and listless condition will confirm that she is anemic. Many mothers as the result of their own girlhood experience, or simply because they see the early signs of anemia, and the wise mother does not wait for the trouble to develop further, but at once gives her daughter a course with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood supply and banish anemia before it has obtained a hold upon the system.

Out of their experience thousands of mothers know that anemia is the sure road to worse ills. They know the difference that good red blood makes in the development of womanly health. Every headache, every sleep for breath that follows the slightest exertion by the anemic girl, every pain she suffers in her head and limbs are reproaches if you have not taken the best steps to give your weak girl new blood, and the only sure way to do so is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. New, rich red blood is infused into the system by every dose of these pills. From this new rich blood springs good health, an increased appetite, new energy, high spirits and perfect womanly development. Give your daughter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and take them yourself and note how promptly their influence is felt in better health.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail post-paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Policy Of "Grab"

Hard to Get Back to the Same Days of Moderation and Peace

It is difficult for the ordinary man to understand why, now that the war is over and industries everywhere are once more busy producing for peace purposes, there should not be a return to something like normal conditions. Financial experts can explain the matter completely to their own satisfaction, but to the ordinary man on the street it appears as if it is just a case of grab. The "easy money" of the war has demoralized all classes, and it is hard to get back to the same days of moderation and peace. The grab's progress cannot go on indefinitely, however, and the sooner this is recognized by governments and profiteers the better.

Land Settlement For British Soldiers

1,000,000 Former Imperial Soldiers Planning to Leave for Overseas Dominions

Toronto, Ont., Wgcn.—Passing through this city en route to Calgary Christopher Turner, of England, who is in this country for the purpose of investigating the Union Government's and settlement plans for imperial soldiers, said that there are 1,000,000 former soldiers of the imperial forces in England who are planning to leave for one of the overseas dominions within the next two years to engage in farm work and declared that there is immediate need on the part of the Government of Canada of strong effort to attract the greater part of these men to the Dominion.

Speaking of the land settlement of the British Empire, Mr. Turner said: "It is appalling that out of about 60,000,000 white population, only about 13,000,000 are on the land, while Germany, one-sixty-fourth as large as the British Empire, has 23,000,000 on the land, and France 18,000,000." In order to remedy this condition of affairs, he explained that there is being formed in England a ministry of emigration, whose duty it will be to settle as many as possible on the lands of Great Britain and create a steady surplus of land-tilling countrymen who will be encouraged to come to Canada and other dominions. These men, he said, would probably settle in communities of about 150, the plan most attractive to the former soldier being a small holding with sufficient capital to operate it.

Labor Enquiry

Preliminary Arrangements for the Coming National Industrial Conference

Ottawa.—The labor sub-committee, under the chairmanship of Senator Robertson, will meet in Ottawa to make preliminary arrangements for the coming national industrial conference. The labor sub-committee is an offshoot of the cabinet reconstruction committee, and has among its members representatives both of capital and labor.

It will consider primarily: (a) The state of the national industrial situation; (b) the method by which the various associations and unions of employees and employers will be represented; (c) the method by which representatives will be chosen.

It is expected that the conference will be held in Ottawa. The date will be as early as possible, possibly in August.

Food Problem in France

Paris, France.—The cabinet considered the problem of the high cost of living. According to the Echo de Paris the government is considering opening the frontiers immediately for the importation of raw materials. Other newspapers declare that the government intends to pass a law inflicting severe penalties on food speculators.

Miss Helen Gemmill played the accompaniments and also, by request, was the organist for the services. An analysis of the voting delegates would appear to indicate that the Crossfield delegates supported Mr. Hall and the Cochrane delegates Mr. Moore, which no doubt was quite natural. That the farmers' are united to support Mr. Moore is shown by the fact that a motion by Mr. G. Huser to make the vote unanimous for Mr. Moore carried without opposition.

Canadian Industrial Congress

Details of plans, program and attendant features of the Canadian Industrial Congress, to be held at Calgary on August 13th and 14th, and to include a tour of the province by special train, has now been completely worked out and congress headquarters, located in the Palliser Hotel, Calgary, announces that reservations are being made for the special train tour, for the congress sessions which are to be held in the Grand Theatre, Calgary, and for hotel accommodation.

The special train, it is announced, will leave Medicine Hat, on the morning of August 12th, will run then to Lethbridge, from that city to Calgary, will be held here for two days during the congress sessions, then will run to Edmonton and from the capital city will move to Banff, arriving in the Rockies on Sunday morning, August 17th.

The theatre sessions will open in the morning at ten o'clock, on Wednesday, August 13th, and will continue until 6 o'clock in the evening, with intermission of 25¢ hours for luncheon, and on the following day, Thursday, will open at the same hour. There will be no evening sessions at the theatre, that portion of the day being utilized with entertainment and motoring. The program is perhaps the most impressive ever gotten together at one industrial gathering on the continent, including among others, Sir Robert Borden, E. W. Beatty, D. B. Hanna, Henry Ford, A. R. Erskine, Finley P. Mount, and many other industrial leaders of continental and world fame.

Congress headquarters asks that all who desire reservation on either the special train, the congress sessions at Calgary or hotel accommodation write or wire to John M. McCreery, Congress Manager, Palliser Hotel, Calgary, Canada, as early as possible.

Ulster Leader's Speech Is Severely Criticized

London.—Sir Edward Carson's speech has brought the Ulster leader under the lash of the newspapers of all parties, primarily on account of his references to the United States, which are criticized as tactless and calculated to breed bad blood between the two nations, and, secondly, because he reiterated his old threat to call out the Ulster volunteers to resist any attempt to place the Home Rule Act in operation.

The Attorney-General, Sir Gordon Hewart, announced in the House of Commons that there were no grounds for setting the law in motion against Sir Edward because of his threat to call out the Ulster volunteers against Home Rule.

By a vote of 217 to 73, the House rejected a motion by J. R. Clynes, Labor member, urging the government to prosecute Sir Edward Carson for his speech as incitement to violence and breach of the law.

The debate turned on the legal point, in which, the Attorney-General said, he had the concurrence of the Solicitor-General. But almost all the speakers without distinction of party condemned the Carson speech. Sir Donald Maclean, Liberal, appealed to the government to try to regain the moral authority of parliament by condemning the language the Irish Unionist leader used.

Andrew Bonar Law, the government spokesman, contended that the government was bound to be guided by its legal advisers, though nothing could be more painful to him. If the government had been advised that the law was broken he would have insisted on action being taken or would have resigned. The whole thing was a very unfortunate affair, said Mr. Bonar Law.

The Labor organizations are not slow to point out how such incitement to "direct action" could be improved upon in the industrial field for securing political ends. The Liberal pro-Unionists are really quick to point out that in point of tactics there is no difference between "King De Valera" and "King Carson."

Labor Conference Called At Ottawa

Premiers of Provinces, Labor Leaders and Employers to Be Invited

Ottawa.—It was decided at a meeting of the privy council to call a national industrial conference for September 11. To this meeting all provincial premiers or accredited representatives will come to talk over with representatives or organizations of employers and employees just what legislation would best help bring about an era of co-operation and concord in Canadian industry. Great efforts will be put forth to secure the hearty cooperation in this conference of all elements of labor and all organizations of employers.

Prices Drop In Germany

Profiteers, in a Panic, Flood Markets With Stocks of Food

Berlin.—Prices on all foodstuffs have fallen with a crash in Berlin as a result of the lifting of the blockade. They began to show weakness when it was rumored that the embargo would be lifted, but the real drop came only when illicit dealers with huge concealed stocks brought them out in universal panic to unload before competing supplies entering Germany.

Tons of provisions are being shipped in from occupied territories, while everywhere in the city German hoards of coffee, cocoa, butter, sausage, and other supplies have made their appearance. Coffee prices fell from an average of forty marks to below twenty, and the product could easily be bought for fifteen.

Other food prices were correspondingly cut. Restaurants, however, still maintain high prices and apparently intend to continue to do so as long as possible.

Minimum Price Of 1919 Crop

Winnipeg.—An afternoon paper prints the following from its Ottawa correspondent:

Confirmation was given by Sir Thomas White of the report that a minimum price for wheat will be guaranteed in all probability by the government.

What this price is to be Sir Thomas would not say. The intention is to give commercial and financial stability to the marketing of the crop, in view of unsettled world conditions, the unique situation created by the United States fixed price, and the uncertainty as to how the world demand would react to the queer conditions now obtaining. The fixing of a price gives a guarantee which will facilitate the placing of the crop, it is hoped.

Hot In India

Troops Campaigning in India Suffer Terribly From Heat and Cholera

Peshawar, India.—The continued heat is appalling, but everything is being done to mitigate the sufferings of the troops. Ice plants have been fitted up at Landikot and Dakina, and an attempt is being made to supply a pound of ice daily to each British soldier. Special huts have been equipped in the Khyber district for treatment of heat cases. The violent epidemic of cholera, which broke out in June, lasted nearly three weeks. There were 1,663 cases and 566 deaths, principally among the camp followers. Six British officers and 15 men also died, but the disease is now practically stamped out.

A special train now daily carries troops for short spells to the Murree Hills. The troops are now better housed and fed than in any previous campaign. The firmsteadiness of the British troops in facing the heat deserves the utmost admiration.

Set Price Of U. S. Wheat

Wheat and Wheat Flour Imports and Exports Put Under Prescribed Limitations

Washington.—President Wilson has signed an executive order increasing the guaranteed price of the 1919 wheat crop to $2.30 per bushel at Galveston and New Orleans. At the same time a presidential proclamation was issued declaring that in order "to protect the United States against undue enhancement of its liability" under the law guaranteeing wheat prices, that on and after July 31 no wheat or wheat flour should be imported into or exported from the United States except within prescribed limitations to be prescribed by the wheat administrator.

Raisuli Again On Warpath

Spanish Position Is Attacked By the Bandits

Madrid.—Raisuli, the Moroccan bandit, according to an official communication, again has attacked the Spanish positions at El Arish, but was repulsed after a long and bitter fight. The bandit, realizing that the Spanish forces had cut off communication between his camp and Tangier, decided to attack, and the communication said it was carried on furiously. Raisuli suffered heavy losses, leaving many dead or wounded on the field. The communication adds that the Spaniards are still heavily, but they are pursuing Raisuli, who is fleeing into the mountainous country.

Co-Operative Plan Suggested

To Aid Stockmen to Get Feed to Cattle, or Cattle to Feed, as Needed

Ottawa.—To relieve the stock-raisers in the dry areas of Alberta and Saskatchewan whose herds are threatened through scarcity of feed, the federal government has submitted two proposals to the provincial governments interested. It is proposed to cut hay on the Dominion lands in the north, bale it and ship it south to feed the cattle or to send the cattle from the southern areas to the hay lands of the north, where moisture has been adequate and grass is abundant.

To carry out either or both of these proposals the Dominion government has proposed to the provincial authorities that the cost of securing and moving the hay and cattle be borne equally by the Dominion government, provincial governments, railway companies and stock owners.

Another proposal for division of expense is that it be borne equally by the Dominion government, provincial governments and railway companies. This latter probably will be adopted, as the stock owners may not be in a financial position to assume any part of the cost. The Alberta authorities have signified their willingness to co-operate, and it is believed will advise that the whole expense be borne by the Dominion and provincial governments and the railway companies.

Forest Fires Caused By Heat

Three Men Trapped in Tunnel of Mine in Salmon River Valley

Nelson.—Three men are trapped by forest fires in a tunnel at the Second Relief mine, near Erie, in the Salmon River Valley. The men are known to have provisions enough to last them for four days.

According to a telephone message received here from Erie, the men are believed to be safe for the time being, although there is danger that they may be suffocated should the flames close in on the mouth of the tunnel.

Several forest fires have started in this district during the past few days as a result of the hot wave. Forest rangers say that the fires are due to the spontaneous combustion of gas generated by the heat from the resin in the trees.

Slogan City, about 25 miles from here, is surrounded by fires. Fire hose have been stretched to outlying sections of the town.

Manitoba Taking Alberta Cattle
Winnipeg.—As a result of the present crisis in the cattle industry in Alberta, where there has been a total failure of hay and other fodder crops, leaving, according to reports, approximately 150,000 head of cattle without food, the Manitoba Department of Agriculture has decided to purchase between 25,000 and 30,000 head for the farmers of this province. Action by the government was announced by Hon. V. Winkler, minister of agriculture.

Britain May Have New Political Party

U.S. Opinion And Irish Question

London.—The British government does not regard the action of the United States senate with respect to Ireland or the acts in the same connection of other persons or bodies representing the United States people, as in violation of Article 10 of the League of Nations covenant, said Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the House of Commons.

The government, Mr. Law added, would not put the question of the future government of Ireland on the program for consideration at the next meeting of the council of the League of Nations.

Predicts Split In Labor Ranks

Dominion Trades and Labor Council Will Have to Take Some Action

Winnipeg.—In the opinion of many union officials, summary action by the Dominion Trades and Labor congress is expected to follow the adoption by the local Trades and Labor Council of the Calgary convention report, amounting to full endorsement of the One Big Union project. The possibility that the local council's charter will be cancelled and formation of a new council comprising unions loyal to the congress authorized, was widely discussed in labor circles.

R. A. Rigg, general organizer for the congress in Western Canada, announced that he had telegraphed the Ottawa headquarters about the action taken by the local council and that he expected to learn what steps would be taken soon.

Mr. Rigg spoke for half an hour against the One Big Union before the vote was taken. "It was all arranged, anyhow," he said, "and there was no chance of winning our point so long as the Trades and Labor Council retains its present make-up."

Rioting in Stettin

Copenhagen.—A general strike, accompanied by rioting, has started at Stettin, capital of the province of Pomerania, Prussia, according to advices received from German sources. The strike involves all trades, including harbor transport, water and electrical power workers. The object of the strike is to secure abolition of martial law in Pomerania and other political reforms.

No Military Entente With U.S.

London.—A report that Great Britain and the United States has entered into an agreement regarding their respective military establishments was denied in the House of Commons by Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

London.—A sensation has been caused in political circles by the news that Colonel Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of War, who has just returned from visiting Premier Lloyd George at Criccieth, delivered a speech at a dinner in the west end, at which over a hundred members of the House of Commons were present, urging the necessity of a new and permanent coalition party, re-designated the "Centre" party.

The dinner was organized, quietly, and only became known of when some of the diners returned to the House.

It appears that Col. Churchill, speaking as a disciple of Lloyd George, spoke for an hour, and reviewed old political differences, and emphasized the necessity for continued combination of the moderates among the Unionists and Liberals in order to preserve what had been won in the war.

Col. Churchill insisted that co-operation was necessary in order to fight Bolshevism.

The supporting speakers included the chief coalition Liberal and Unionist whips.

The Lord Chancellor referred sympathetically to the future of the Labor party, but some speculation exists as to the new party's attitude of alliance or opposition towards the saner elements. The diners gained the impression that Lloyd George would lead the new Centre party.

British Officials Honored By U.S.

General Pershing Grants Service Decorations in London

London.—General Pershing, the United States commander-in-chief, has presented Distinguished Service Medals to a number of prominent British government officials. Those who received the medals were Viscount Milner, Secretary for the Colonies; Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for War; Viscount Peel; Baron Weir, Director-General of Aircraft Production; Baron Loversworth (Andrew Weir), former Minister of Munitions, and Felix Cassels, Judge Advocate-General.

In presenting the medals, General Pershing said they were a token of the appreciation of the American government for services rendered by the recipients.

Plain Truths For Turkey

Are Judged Solely By Their Conduct in the War

Hoping apparently to minimize the severity of the judgment which was known to be in course of preparation by the supreme council of the allies in Paris for delivery to the peace delegation from the Ottoman empire, a memorandum was presented to the council by the Turkish Grand Vizier, Damad Ferid (Sherif) Pasha, in which he attempted to prove that the people and the present government of Turkey are in no way responsible for the actions of the former government, which led them into war on the side of the Germans. The blame is placed on secret treaties and misrepresentation in Berlin, and the Turkish archives are said to be wide open to prove the assertions.

The dark blot caused by the massacres of Armenian Christians they would offset by stating that as many, if not more, Armenians died a like fate, that no discrimination was shown, and that the whole of Asia Minor is a mass of ruins. The revolutionary party in Turkey is said to be responsible for all this, and the massacres are said to have been carried out on the same principles as those animating the Bolsheviks of Russia, viz. the destruction of organized society. Turkey, it is claimed, should not be held guilty for the crimes of revolutionists, and the Grand Vizier points to history to show that his country is capable of ruling subject races for the benefit of all concerned.

Apart from this, the principles enunciated by President Wilson are invoked in an extraordinary claim that the Turkish empire be left as it was before the war, the Turks asserting that they wish in future to devote themselves to an intense economic and intellectual culture in order thus to become a useful factor in the league of nations.

The reply of the allied council, signed by Premier Clemenceau, is stern and direct—capable of no two interpretations. The Turks are told that, while they may now repudiate those who were responsible for the conduct of the war, a nation must be judged by the government which ruled it, which directs its policy, which controls its armies, and Turkey cannot claim any relief from the legitimate consequence of this doctrine.

The allied further state that Turkey has never displayed any aptitude for governing other people, and that "neither among the Christians of Europe nor among the Moslems of Syria, Arabia and Africa has the Turk done other than destroy wherever he has conquered; never has he shown himself able to develop in peace what he has won by war. Not in this direction has he shown his talents lie."

The Turks also demanded the maintenance of their empire on consideration based on opposed religious rivalries, but the Council of Four answered that no religious issue was involved in the war issue, and there are any existing now, adding: "What religious issue is raised by a struggle in which Protestant Germany, Roman Catholic Austria, Orthodox Bulgaria and Moslem Turkey banded themselves to plunder their neighbors? The only survivor of deliberate fanaticism perceptible in this transaction was the massacre of Christian Armenians by order of the Turkish government."

"Nothing touching religion has been altered, except the security with which it may be practised, and this, wherever allied control exists, has certainly been altered for the better."

"For reasons we have already indicated, the Turk was attempting a task for which he had little aptitude and in which he had consequently had little success. See him to work in happier circumstances; let his energies find their chief exercise in surroundings more congenial to his genius, under circumstances less complicated and difficult, with an evil tradition of corruption and intrigue severed, perhaps forgotten, why should he not add lustre to his country, and thus indirectly to his religion by other qualities than those of courage and discipline, which he has always so conspicuously displayed?"

"Unless we are mistaken, Your Excellency should understand our hopes. In an impressive passage of your memorandum, you declare it to be your country's mission to devote itself to an intensive economic and intellectual culture."

"No change could be more startling or impressive, none could be more beneficial. If Your Excellency is able to initiate this great process of development in men of the Turkish race, you will deserve and will certainly receive all the assistance we are able to give you."

Big Deal in Linen

Interesting Phase of Belfast's Attempted Monopoly and Defeat By Plucky Investor

London.—Leonard J. Martin, a young English business man who deals in agricultural machinery, has bought for $20,000,000 from the British government about forty million yards of linen, which was intended for making airplanes. He knew nothing about linen, but bought it for speculation.

Today his name and picture are featured in every British paper, and editorial writers are pointing out that the enterprising young man does not have to go to new countries to find golden business opportunities. He is 37 years of age, and began with a capital of about $500.

"I bought over the heads of everybody else," he said, discussing the big deal, "simply by offering a higher price than anybody else would pay. This is a one-man deal."

The stock of material Martin now controls represents three years' normal supply. He is figuring on a profit of $5,000,000.

The linen has been for sale by the government since January, under an offer to sell to the general public in eighty-yard lengths and one hundred-yard bales. "Belfast people," said Martin, "imagined they had the stuff between their two fingers."

"They went on making linen by millions of yards at 40 to 75 cents a yard after the armistice and refused to allow their contracts to be cancelled. Then they offered the government seven cents a yard to take it back. Their price later went up to about 25 cents a yard, and it was still hoped, in view of the monopoly, to sell it to the public at three shillings. They could have equipped all the mills in Ulster out of the profits. It would have given the linen at about double the final Belfast offer."

Stockings Of Guncotton

Chemical Processes Give It Combustible and Non-Explosive Qualities

Clad in stockings, ball gowns and lingerie made of artificial silk, milady is encased in precisely the same material of which high explosives are made—guncotton.

That there is no danger, however, that in the midst of a ball milady may furnish like a puff of shrapnel or the explosion of a shell was the positive assurance of Count Hilaire de Chardonnet, the inventor of artificial silk.

At the age of 80 years, this illustrious chemist and scientist has just been elected to the supreme honor of membership in the French Academy of Sciences for his discovery of how to put one over on the silk worms.

During the war he had been decorated by the French Minister of War with the Cross of a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor for discoveries relating to the manufacture of high explosives growing out of his researches, made primarily to render artificial silk stockings non-explosive.

According to Count Hilaire, the artificial silk, which is now produced by vast factories in Switzerland, Belgium, France, Italy, England and the United States, has for its basis nothing less than guncotton. One of the greatest problems he had to solve in perfecting it for everyday use was to render it nonexplosive.

Chemical processes give it combustible and non-explosive qualities, together with the consistency and transparency of the finest silk from Japan or China.

It took just thirty years of the 80 which Count Hilaire has completed to perfect his discovery and render it of actual and practical commercial value.

Proposed Ferry For England And Sweden

Plan for Realization of Project Is Now Ready

Stockholm, Sweden.—The question, so important to Sweden, of a daily over-sea connection with England, has advanced so far that a detailed plan for the realization of this project is now ready. The investigations have been carried out by the railway department and specially appointed experts, and their proposal, as to which they all agree, is that the connection should be maintained by four steam ferries. These, together with two reserve ferries, would cost about 30 million Swedish crowns. The terminus stations would be Gothenburg and a port on the Humber. It is unanimously recommended that measures should be adopted for the realization of this project, in spite of the possibility that the direct profits realized would not be so great that it could pay the full interest on the capital invested in it. The real gains, however, are considered to be so important that they would fully compensate for the sacrifice made.

As, however, these gains will influence the English as well as the Swedish side, as the capital needed is comparatively large, it is considered necessary that governmental co-operation should be obtained on the English side so as to enable the plan to be realized, and if the English government would co-operate with the number of ferries, the economic conditions of the line could be arranged in the same way as those on the Sassnitz route, each side fixing the tariff for half the route and annexing the income thereof.

Furthermore, it is regarded as a necessary part of the scheme that the English government should co-operate in the building of the Swedish ferries, so that these could be completed within a reasonable time.

As a result of these investigations, carried out by the railway department and other experts, it is urged that negotiations should be entered into with the English government, as soon as possible, with the object of carrying out the work in the manner proposed.

Sense In Superstitions

Often Reason Underlying What Seems Merely a Superstition

There is often a common-sense reason underlying what at first sight seems merely a superstition. Take, for instance, the old belief among colliers, that a mine much frequented by mice is a lucky mine. We know now that mice are peculiarly susceptible to foul gases, and the presence of unusually large numbers of these little animals, therefore, is proof positive of the absence of any "danger," Hence the alleged "luck."

Then, again, there is the "third-toe-a-match" superstition. This originated during the Boer war. By the time the lighted match had been passed to the third man some wretched enemy sniper would be pretty sure to spot it and let drive at it. And that was where the "bad luck" came in.

Our grandmothers used to hang a red bannet pillow over the window of a smallpox patient's room, asserting that it hastened the cure and also prevented "biting." Scientists have now discovered that the red rays actually exert a bad effect on the bacteria of the disease, and a correspondingly good effect on the patient.

The Fashion in Children's Names The war, which has affected the public mind in so many ways, is probably responsible for the fact that the spring and summer crop of babies—in England at any rate—are not on the whole being saddled with names which they will resent all their lives. There seems a marked tendency to return to plain, old-fashioned names. The boys are called John or Richard, George or Edward, or some other plain name. For girls, "Elizabeth" once more is a favorite choice, with Jane and Alice, and Mary now is a name more popular than for many decades past. Grace and Bridgett are enjoying a new vogue; but so is "Patricia," by the way.

When a man tells you that further argument is unnecessary it means that he has reached the end of the string.

France Improving Ports

Hoping to Extend Commerce Both Internal and External

Paris.—France is at the present time is very actively engaged with the question of improving her ports, and so bringing them, and indeed all parts of the country, into close communication with the sea and river ports, by this means, she is extending her commerce both internal and external.

If there exist no rapid and economical means of transport, reconstruction, it seems, is the main word, and France suffers greatly from this at the present time, and paces advance in proportion as the means of locomotion become rarer and more inconvenient. This evil is felt both in the interior of France and also on its sea coast. For example, take the case of the port of Havre; during the war the ordinary lines of navigation disappeared. This was inevitable; the necessities of national defense were naturally the first thing to be considered. The port, therefore, became a British and Belgian base; most of the docks and storehouses overfilled with military and civilian supplies, munitions, arms and munitions of all kinds. The allied troops arrived incessantly. Now that war is over, however, the convoy ships will not so heavily laden, and they can take their time. Besides, the allies have been so busy with their merchant fleets at their disposal.

Shipbuilding has been and is still almost at a standstill in France, and the destruction of vessels of all kinds has been great. All the steamers which remain are Austrian, of a thorough overhauling and new boats must be built. Ocean steamers will soon again make Havre their starting point. Havre is also one of the greatest markets in the world, and in addition to regulating the world's market as regards such products as cotton, pepper, cocoa, and copper, it possessed important stocks of leather, indiarubber, etc. This activity must be revived and increased as soon as possible. The grand program of 1909 for enlarging the port has not yet been entirely realized, but, when it is finished, the surface of the new deep-water basin will be as great as the old one; the sum of 200,000,000 francs, recently voted by the Chamber of Deputies, will allow of the construction of the new basin, and will enable the whole work to be achieved.

Canada And Titles

British Opinion May Soon Follow That of Canada, in Respect to Titles

We have from time to time reported the proceedings of the select committee of the Canadian House of Commons on titles. This report has now come before the House itself, and has been adopted in its entirety. The report asks that an address be passed begging the King to grant no further titles to Canadian citizens, and that all hereditary titles hitherto granted shall terminate with the present holders. It will be impossible for the King—that is, the imperial government—to refuse to act upon such a request, which undoubtedly speaks the mind of the overwhelming majority of Canadians, and the imperial parliament will pass any legislation that may be necessary to give Canadian satisfaction. It is fairly certain that the other dominions will follow the Canadian example, for at least in Australia and New Zealand sentiment has been strongly against the granting of hereditary titles.

Quite apart from the circumstance that some of the colonial recipients of title distinction have been as lacking in merit as some of the English recipients, the dominions feel the granting of titles is both an interference in Dominion self-government and a blot upon the democratic equality which should be the stamp of Dominion citizenship. Every Liberal-minded man will approve this sentiment, and we can but hope that the day is not far off when British democracy will prove as sensitive and express itself as decisively. The lavish manufacture of titles—comparable only to the lavish manufacture of paper money—is rapidly educating British popular opinion up to the colonial standard.—From the Manchester Guardian.

Predicts Atlantic Airlship Service

Ships of Future Will Not Be Like the R-34

Mineral, N.Y.—Entries from the diaries kept by various members of the crew of the British dirigible throw an interesting light on the difficulties and dangers of the trans-Atlantic voyage. Notwithstanding their General Maitland, who kept the official log of the historic trip, predicts a regular airship service across the Atlantic before many years.

"The ships of the future," declared General Maitland, "will not be like the R-34, which, although a fine ship, is not big" enough for trans-Atlantic commercial traffic."

An entry from the diary of Lieut. Harris, meteorological observer, describes how the R-34 acted when it ran into the storm off the coast of Newfoundland. "The ship seemed as though she was going to break into bits, rising and falling like a cork on a heavy sea. At times, I believe she stood up 30 degrees in the air."

"The weather situation on the Atlantic must be investigated very thoroughly before trans-Atlantic travel between England and America can be made safe and practicable. With the limited information as to weather conditions that we have now, trans-Atlantic travel is highly dangerous. I consider it almost a miracle that we completed the trip successfully, after what we went through last night."

Lieut. Shutter, engineer officer, was specially impressed with the "staggering" nature of trans-Atlantic airship flights. He wrote in his diary:

"I am more convinced than ever as we travel on that there will never be a trans-Atlantic airplane service for a considerable time."

African Taste in Necklaces

The natives of Portuguese East Africa have a remarkable taste in personal adornment. A British officer, just returned from a trek of 950 miles in the interior, says that at first it was hard to get food, the natives always claiming that the fleeing enemy had taken all the food. But the offer of an empty tin or Bovril bottle, carefully polished, always instantly brought out the desired supplies. One village a dusky dandy "was a striking advertisement for a condensed milk firm, for we left her with a string of empty tins hanging around her neck."

Farmers' Political Party

Winipeg.—Eighty farmer members of the House of Commons after the next general federal election, was the prediction made by R. McKenzie, vice-president of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, and one of the most powerful supporters of the movement to found a strong farmers' political party in Canada. These eighty members will represent ridings scattered from coast to coast—the Dominion. Mr. McKenzie said, and will be pledged to the farmers' platform.

Primitive steam bath establishments, in which the whole family take the weekly bath all together, are still believed necessary, and no home can be found that does not "bath" its "namas," the bath. Lithuanians were originally fire worshippers, and it is believed the hearth was the place where the sacred rites of the old cult were observed.

Appreciation of Hospitality to New Zealand Troops Visiting the United States

Auckland, N.Z.—Appreciation of American hospitality to New Zealand troops visiting the United States, and the camaraderie of the battlefield, have brought the big republic and dominion of New Zealand nearer than in pre-war days. This feeling was emphasized by Lieutenant Morton, who recently returned to Auckland from a lecturing tour in America. An official recognition was also given by the Wellington City Council, which sent a vote of appreciation to officials at Panama and Colon in connection with the treatment of New Zealand soldiers passing through the canal. It is interesting in this connection to note that Australia has cabled its gratitude to the Panama Canal administration through the Imperial government.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make This Beauty Lotion Cheaply for Your Face, Neck, Arms and Hands

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of one of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, whiten and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon-lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

Canada Wants Big Poultry Industry

Preaching the Gospel of Increased Poultry Production to Canada

Montreal.—The hens of Canada, if properly encouraged, could pay the nation's war debt in a few years, according to F. C. Ellord, apostle of the barnyard chicken.

The 1,000,000 farms of Canada should have 100,000,000 hens on them, and there should be 10,000,000 additional hens in towns and villages. At a low estimate of ten dozen eggs from each hen, these hens would produce 1,100,000,000 dozen eggs. If these eggs sold at 60¢ a dozen, which is below the present price, Canada's egg crop would bring in $660,000,000 a year.

Mr. Ellord is preaching the gospel of increased poultry production to Canada. He wants especially to get across to the settlers who are pouring in upon the land the message that under present food conditions the barnyard fowl lays golden eggs.

Nearly a billion chickens are raised yearly in the U.S. In 1900 Uncle Sam's wealth from poultry and eggs was greater in money value than the world's output of gold or silver. In 1909 the value of all the wheat, corn, barley, rye, buckwheat, rice, flax, small fruits, sugar cane and sugar beets raised in the United States was less than the revenue from chickens.

Says Winnipeg Will Have 50 Community Clubs in a Few Years

F. C. Middleton, acting secretary of the Social Service Council, predicts that in the next few years Winnipeg will have 50 Community clubs. The community movement is gripping the city as well as the country, and the recent flood in Winnipeg has shown the need of a united citizenship.

Channel Tunnel Project Discussed
Westminster, England.—A meeting of members of the House of Commons, held to discuss the report on the Channel tunnel, unanimously agreed that the project should not be left to private enterprise, but should be executed jointly by the two nations, and adopted a resolution asking for the government's support as the best proof of Great Britain's desire to maintain and improve her friendship and alliance with France.

Supplying Farmers With Breeding Stock

Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture Encouraging Mixed Farming

The Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture, with a view to encouraging mixed farming, will supply farmers with breeding stock at first cost. The department has at Regina 24 pure-bred bulls, including Short-horns, Herefords, Polled Herefords and Aberdeen Angus. Not a few farmers are starting to raise beef cattle, engaging in dairying or starting with small flocks of sheep, and it is with the intention of encouraging this that the livestock branch is making the above offer. As orders come in, more sires will be purchased, and Ayreshires and Holsteins sires will also be secured for dairy farmers. These sires are sold for cash or on easy terms. Last year 125 were sold through the department, and this year it is expected that between 150 and 175 will be sold.

This is to certify that fourteen years ago I got the cords of my left wrist nearly severed, and was for about nine months that I had no use of my hand, and could not lift anything, also doctors, and was receiving no benefit. By a perspiration from a friend I got MINARD'S LINTMENT and used one bottle, which completely cured me, and have been using MINARD'S LINTMENT in my family ever since and find it the same as when I first used it, and would never be without it.

Britain Leads

Britannia Rules the Air as Well as the Waves

The New York Tribune points out that in 1914 Germany was first, France was second, Italy was fourth and the United States was last in the appreciation of aircraft, as shown by the amount of money each was willing to spend on that arm of preparedness. When the armistice was signed, on November 11, 1918, the personnel of each military air force in each of these countries was as follows:

Officers and men
Great Britain	295,000
United States	183,852
Italy	100,337
France	80,000
Germany	Unknown
Great Britain is determined to maintain her lead, in evidence of which appropriations for the year 1919-20 follow:
Experiments and research in civil aviation	$15,000,000
Military and naval (joint service)	$315,000,000
Total appropriated for the air	$330,000,000

It is now as appropriate to sing "Britannia Rules the Air" as it is to sing "Britannia Rules the Waves."

Question of Stock Running at Large in Municipal Districts

Under the provisions of The Municipal District Act Sections 200 to 210a inclusive, authority is given to any Municipal District to pass a by-law with reference to stock running at large. By the amendments made to the Act at the recent session of the Legislature, at the request of the Hon. A. G. MacKay, Minister of Municipal Affairs, any by-law of a Municipal District with reference to stock running at large, must be submitted for approval to the Minister before it can be advertised as provided for by Section 214 of the said Act, and any Municipal Council that is considering the putting into force of a by-law with reference to stock running at large, should be able to see that they have the necessary approval endorsed on a certified copy of their by-law before it is advertised. This amendment was asked for not because it was desired to interfere in any way with the business of the Municipal Districts, but for the purpose of protecting Municipal Districts as far as possible, from trying to enforce a by-law which would be illegal, and which would get them into trouble.

The following is a copy of the model form of by-law which is being sent out to the Municipal Districts under the instructions of the Minister, so that they may draw up their by-law in accordance therewith:

By-law No.

A By-law of the Municipal District of No. for restraining animals at large.

1. No horse, etc. (describe animals to be affected), the property of any person, resident or non-resident, within the said Municipal District of No. shall at any time be at large in that part of the said Municipal District, particularly described as follows: (if it is not desired to restrain animals from running at large in any part of the district, use the words "in any part of the said Municipal District" if during certain months of the year, substitute particular months for the words "at any time.")

2. An animal at large shall be deemed to be any animal not under direct control of the owner or someone acting under his authority, or not confined within any building or lawful fence.

3. Any animal at large contrary to the provisions of this by-law may be impounded in the manner herein provided for.

4. Pounds shall be established as follows (location of pounds and names of Poundkeepers shall be added).

5. Any fence conforming with the requirements of the Fence Ordinance shall be deemed to be a lawful fence (or the Municipal District may define the fence).

6. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, any resident of the said Municipal District may allow head of horses or cattle (up to 100 may be allowed or in the alternative up to 500 sheep) to run at large for every 100 acres of land owned by him within the said district.

7. The provisions of Sections 208 to 210 inclusive of the Municipal District Act, shall be deemed to be incorporated in and form part of this by-law.

8. The provisions of the Stray Animals Ordinance, the Entire Animals Ordinance, the Herd Ordinance and the Pound District Ordinance, shall cease to be operative within the said Municipal District on the coming into force of this by-law (if it is desired to retain the Stray Animals Ordinance, or the Entire Animals Ordinance, the one to be retained shall not be mentioned in this section).

9. Any person who suffers or permits any animal which he is entitled to possession of, to be at large within the said

Municipal District, shall be guilty of a breach of this by-law, and shall, under summary conviction under Part XV of the Criminal Code, forfeit and pay as a penalty an amount not exceeding One Hundred Dollars and costs, and in default of payment forthwith after conviction, shall be liable to punishment by imprisonment with or without hard labor for a period not exceeding thirty days, unless such fine and costs, including the costs of commitment, are sooner paid.

DONE AND PASSED IN COUNCIL, this day of A.D., 19. Mayor.

(Municipal District Seal.)

Secretary-Treasurer.

Referring to this model form of by-law, the following points should be carefully noted:

Section 1 refers to "resident or non-resident." If it is desired to make the by-law apply to non-residents only, the necessary change desired should be made.

Section 6 provides for the limiting of the number of cattle or horses or sheep that a man owning land within the Municipal District may be allowed to run at large.

The question of the number that may be allowed to run at large in any Municipal District rests with the Council of the District, but no provision can be inserted in the By-law so as to allow the owner of land to have more than one cattle or horses or five hundred sheep running at large for each quarter section of land in the Municipal District owned by him. It should, of course, be borne in mind that it is not necessary for the Municipal Council to deal with this point at all unless they so desire.

It is important that the provisions of the Act in regard to advertising of the by-law should be carefully followed; that is, that any by-law with reference to stock running at large, which the Council of the Municipal District intend putting into operation, should, after the form of by-law has been approved by the Minister, be advertised by some Newspaper published in the Municipality, or if there be no Newspaper published in the Municipality, in some Newspaper having a circulation therein. Such notice shall contain a short synopsis of the By-law, and in addition, a copy of the by-law is required to be posted up in fifteen conspicuous places in the Municipality: one of these places being the office of the Secretary-Treasurer.

If within thirty days of the publication of the notice in the Newspaper, ten resident electors of the Municipal District petition the Council to do so, the by-law must be submitted to a vote of the resident electors, and a two-thirds majority of those voting is required before the Council can place the by-law in operation.
